Proctor Knott Cigar.

"46 Cattle For Sale."

I have 46 nice young deerborn steers, well colored good growth cattle, average 1000 pounds run well together. Will contract now and deliver first of February. Correspondence solicited. E. C. McWaters, McWaters, Kentucky. dec4-1m

Firm Spreading.

"Columbus" Neil has taken into himself a partner, one another with a business burden. In the person of Mr. Elzie Million, who will add to the business of the firm, which is already prospering.

Court News.

January court day was not conspicuous for anything much besides a fair-sized crowd. Business among the merchants was rather disappointing. 1000 cattle on the market with prices about 45c.

Beautiful Quarters.

Miss Temple Odham has rented the handsome apartments over Armer's new jewelry store, and will be glad to have her friends call. As a practical and artistic milliner she has no superior in the city.

New Face There.

Mr. Burton Harris, of Kicksville, son of late Dr. Harris, will be glad to see his friends at Covington & Mitchell's, where he is working. He is an excellent young man and has had experience in the business.

Local Option Enforced.

An order has just been posted on the Chesapeake & Ohio that any employee of the company detected drinking a saloon will be discharged; also any employee of any saloon who is detected drinking will result in his dismissal. The order went into effect Jan. 1.

Gone to Housekeeping.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt S. Cohen have gone to housekeeping on Second street, north of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Parfitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Evans, Jr., will go to housekeeping in one of the dwellings next to the Eastern church. Mrs. Evans is one of the best young housekeepers in Madison county and her home will be as bright as the sunlight that beams into her parlor window.

The Question of Pikes.

At the meeting of the Fiscal Court, last week, it was ordered that all unfulfilled contracts for work on dirt roads be cancelled and let to the next lowest bidder. The present system of working roads was abolished, and instead the old system was to be maintained. A general supervisor of pikes will probably be appointed, or the matter discussed next May. Until then the pikes will be under the eye and ear of the magistrates in whose district they are located.

Raised the Pastor's Salary.

After the services last Sunday morning a congregational meeting was held at the First Presbyterian Church, where it was unanimously voted to raise the pastor's compensation to $1200 per annum, an increase of $200. The pastor, Rev. J. K. Smith, has thoroughly familiarized himself with the best interests of his church and has endeavored himself to all our citizens, who will, regardless of denominational connections, be gratified with this spontaneous but deserved tribute of the church to its beloved pastor.

House Burns at Twilight.

Granville Clarke's residence, on the Bonaparte pike, was burned at twilight Sunday evening between five and six o'clock. The loss is about $1250 but fortunately the policy in the First Home Insurance Company will cover it. The prompt assistance of neighbors caused a saving of some of the contents of the house in a damaged condition.

The house was known as the Press Smith house, and was a landmark in that section.

New Operator.

Mr. J. T. Ferrell, of Versailles, is manager of the W. E. Telegraph office here now, succeeding the late Albert McCormack. It would meet with public approval, if the company would permit Mrs. McCormack to take the place as fast as she becomes more thoroughly fitted for the work. As good with the pen as with the key, she has been the work of a lady operator, whose fidelity to duty was never questioned. Mrs. McCormack partially understands the work and could soon qualify for the duties of the office.

A Fine Officer.

Millard West, deputy collector of Lancaster, was here a short while Monday returning from Jackson and Rockcastle counties, where, with a posse, he destroyed four illegal distilleries and arrested the owner of one of them, a man named Wolfe, who is in jail at Mt. Vernon.

Mr. West is either seventeen or fifty years old—he looks for either, but a man of sound sense, courage, daring, and all that goes to make up a model deputy. He passed an able head and a stronger heart.

Central University.

The second term of this institution opened yesterday.

Students will be received for the second and third terms and charged for the first year only, namely, $22.50 to the "prep," and $50 to the college proper.

Preparatory students will have the benefit of the gymnasium without charge. A period during the morning session will be devoted to the physical training by the director.

Paid The Debt.

S. M. Wells and R. E. Piersall of White Sulphur Springs, Ind. paid $25000 in taxes to the State of Indiana, and were then allowed to go to the water and fish, raising his hand a foot.

Friend Wells, in the name of Samuel J. Pugh I baptize you into the Republican party and sound money. Amen.—Pinechamber Agitator.

Sign of the Millennium.

When saloon keepers themselves refuse to go to the polls and vote for whisky, as did one at Muncie, Ind., at the recent election, little room for doubt is left as to the ultimate victory for the dry in all smaller towns. Fred Willis is the name of the Muncie school teacher, who got enough of the business in less than eight months. When asked why he did not vote he said: "I would have voted against saloons if I had voted at all, which would have placed me in a most inconsistent attitude."—Standard Journal.

All Parties Known Here.

The lands of the late Col. R. G. Storer have been divided. His widow gets 250 acres including the home place and part of the Dan Hiller place, for life. Mrs. Sidney G. Gray gets in fee simple the Bawles place of 250 acres, the Cave Ridge place of 181 acres, and 120 acres of the Hiller place. Warren Storer, who married Miss Jennie Fox, of Mt. Sterling, gets the Missouri farm of 2,800 acres. The personal property has not been divided.

Event of the Season.

On Friday evening of 4 this week, in the ball room of the Madison Temple the Madison Junior Social Club will give in honor of its friends its annual New Year Ball. The floor of the ball room has been much improved during the last week, and the members will use every effort to equal their former brilliant success.

The Saxton and his far-famed orchestra will furnish the music. The emcees will be Mrs. I. Shelby Irvine, Mrs. C. D. Chennett, Mrs. D. B. Shuckeloff, Mrs. Harvey Chennett, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Jr., Mrs. G. W. Evans, Jr., and Mrs. Nell Bennett.

Petition to a Bankruptcy.

R. A. Dahl, Wisconsin, the well known trader, filed a petition in bankruptcy this week, placing his liabilities at $41,397, and assets, $294. It was in surprise to the friends of Mr. Dahl that he had resorted to the bankrupt law, as he had never been relieved from the old Harbison & Co. debt and there was no other alternative. At the time of the above firm's assignment Mr. Dahl turned over to his creditors not only what he possessed legally, but also that which he was entitled to by the law—home-land, etc. No trader in Jessamine has more friends than Mr. Dahl, and everyone believes that if he were able all of his creditors would receive their money with interest.—Jessamine Journal.

A Big Item to Madison County.

John J. Feels Cobb has just returned from Louisville where he and Judge Sullivan delivered $12,000 of bonds being refunding bonds which are to take place of the old R. N. L. & Co. bonds issued several years ago to aid in the construction of the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine and Kentucky railroad. By this exchange Madison county gets a premium of $3200 cash, and saves $1120 over for twenty years; the old bonds bearing 5 per cent, and the new bonds 4 per cent. In other words we will save the $11200, but by the new arrangement we have $3200 paid to us and instead of paying 5 per cent, on the old bonds, we will hereafter pay only 4 per cent. Judge Sullivan will return to-day.

Without a Parallel.

Prof. R. E. Evans, the well known school teacher, tells the CLIMAX of some remarkable occurrences in his thirty years career as a teacher. He has taught 1000 children in 30 years, in 30 school houses. He has taught in the same school, children of the following names: Shirts and Longs, Gouins and Cummings, Hagans and Ragans, Cays and Mullays, Dawes and Ross, Calless and Ontons, Whites, and Blacks. Evans and Savers. The first named view one pupil, and being attracted to him, no one will doubt the statement. Sometime ago we said that in this town was a Cobb who had taught a pig and a hog and some of our contemporaries said "What!—1?" as we give this story over our old almanac with a year's subscription free if it is not true. So, you see, next.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Frank Bident has resigned his charge of the Episcopal church at El Estacion and will devote all his time to Cincinnati.

Rev. Martin D. Hardin, the brilliant young son of Gen. P. W. Hardin, has been tendered a church in Minneapolis, with a salary of $1000 per year.

Rev. G. W. Young's temperance lecture at the Christian church Sunday night was one of the finest efforts of the kind that a synagogue has heard. A large congregation filled the church. Cynthiana Democrat.

A young man who had been converted to the Salvation Army, speaking from a platform, declared that all pride and self-conceit had been taken out of his heart. To prove it he said he would go to the audience and kiss down to the old colored woman. As he went down to kiss her, he was met by a crowd of men and women, who said: "Look away, hinderer, you may have no pride, but I think you can't kiss me."

Twenty couples have been married in Greenup county since last Friday.

Midway people are keeping the drug stores busy filling grip prescriptions.
